During this time of isolation Liz Mason is working from home. Phone calls are being diverted to her home and she has an answer machine which will direct any urgent enquiries to the Wardens, Rebecca and Anne.

Rev'd Fran Le Blanc is still leading our worship but will be doing so at a distance from her home in Portugal. Those of us who joined in at a distance last Sunday found the service inspiring and we would recommend that everyone tries to join in. The link will be posted on the website as soon as we have it available.

Meanwhile if you explore the Diocesan website you will find other churches doing similar services. Our reader Celia recommends Morning, Evening and Night prayer read by the Rev'd Louis Darrant from the Costa Azahar Chaplaincy. The services are on his Facebook page so perhaps you could ask to be a "friend".

What a valuable way to bring routine to our somewhat disturbed days at the moment!

At this time the Church has no income but still has outgoings. We appreciate that these times may be hard for many in the congregation but those of you who contribute via planned giving envelopes might consider making a bank transfer on a regular basis. You can change this when we get back to normality but you might find it more convenient to keep going!

Our bank details are; The Comunion Anglicana de Madrid IBAN ES97 2038 1065 5660 0114 6076

Mums deserve tea in bed and help around the house even if you can't go and buy anything or take her out to lunch!

P.S. Turn over to colour a card!
